Step 5B: Import Results by show and by Event

In the Event Detail page, click on “Import Event Results” in the bottom left corner. Browse for your XML File on your computer and click “Open”.

Step 6: Validation of XML File

The first check following the results file upload is the validation of the XML Schema. You will easily identify them as they are described in the pop-up (line and column number of the XML file will appear in the error message).

Error Report

When you Upload your XML file, an error check is performed as described below. Three types of errors can occur:

- Fatal
- Warning
- Warning

Fatal Errors

When fatal errors occur, you will need to treat every error one by one in order to upload your file:

- Refer to the message description to resolve any fatal errors.

IT providers

- A list of all possible errors can be found in Annex 1.

Warning

- Check Athletes and Horse names and the competing for.

- If the name of the rider or the horse does not match at all with the name that is connected with the FEI ID entered in the results, this error will appear as a Warning error. If there are only minor mistakes in the name entered, it will show up as a Warning.
