How to become a Permitted Treating Vet or Permitted Equine Therapist

You wish to become a FEI Permitted Treating Veterinarian?

You wish to attend FEI Events to carry out 'Restricted Therapies' as a Permitted Equine Therapist?

All the information regarding these two veterinary roles are available on the FEI website here: <https://inside.fei.org/fei/your-role/veterinarians/education>

1. Permitted Treating Veterinarian

Step 1: Fill in the application form you can find on the FEI website here: <https://inside.fei.org/fei/your-role/veterinarians/education/forms-downloads>

Step 2: Send the application form to your National Federation, this is either the Federation of the Country in which you reside or the Country of your Nationality

Contact details can be found here: <https://data.fei.org/NFPages/NF/Search>

Step 3: Your National Federation will review your application and can approve your request.

Once your request is approved, you will receive an email from the FEI and/or your National Federation to take the relevant exam on the FEI Campus platform.

Once the exam is passed, you will be listed as a FEI Permitted Treating Veterinarian on the FEI Database.

Guidelines on how to access this exam can be found here.

2. Permitted Equine Therapist

Step 1: Navigate to the specific page here: <https://inside.fei.org/fei/your-role/veterinarians/permitted-equine-therapists>
