on the toggle button on the right hand side. You will then be able to drag and drop the Events to change their order.

To note: If you add an Event with unlimited entries to the Athlete's wish list, they are guaranteed to be entered and accepted in that Event during the invitation allocation process. This means:

- you cannot add two Events with unlimited entries to their wish list
- the Event with unlimited entries must be at the end of their wish list, after the Events using the FEI Invitation System.
