About

The FEI Tack, Equipment and Dress Database and Mobile app provides organized, easily understandable and searchable information on allowed and prohibited tack, equipment and dress in FEI Competitions.

It is a user-friendly tool supplying all FEI stakeholders, in particular, FEI Athletes, their Support Personnel and FEI Officials, with relevant and detailed information on tack and equipment.

The information is arranged by discipline, category and subcategory of tack and equipment. Each individual piece of tack and equipment is represented using photographs, illustrations and/or videos; is accompanied with the relevant legal basis and is clearly marked as allowed or prohibited. If special conditions apply, it will be marked using an exclamation mark (!). Please kindly note that the designation "Not Applicable" or "N/A" means that the relevant tack, equipment or dress is either not relevant for the specific Discipline, is currently not addressed or specified in the Discipline Rule or has not yet been addressed by the FEI.

Please be aware that the information provided in the Database is non-exhaustive and that new tack, equipment and dress is added to the Database on a regular basis.

Disclaimer:
